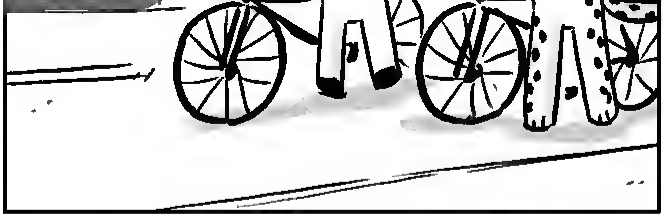
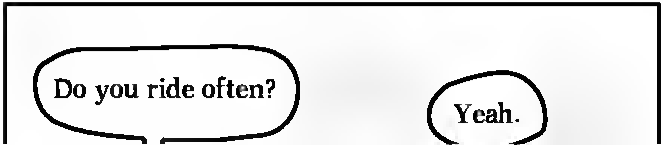
Girl's Talk

BIKE
Great weather today! We're lucky!
Thanks for bringing me along.



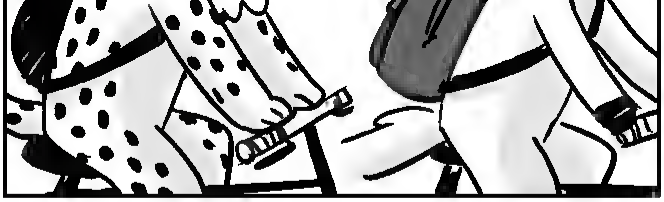
Let's go for that route.
Lot of slopes but great view!
Sure.

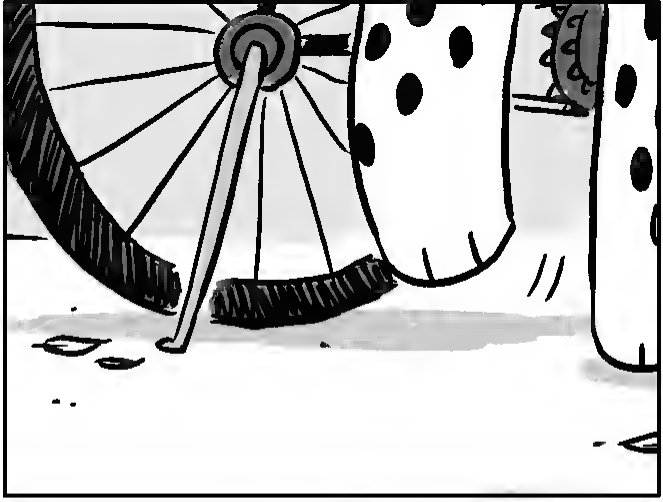


Do you ride often?
Yeah.

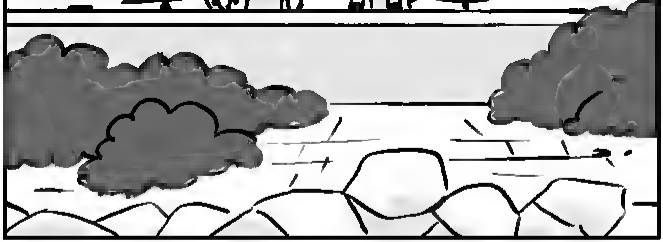
By yourself?
Uh-huh.

...Isn't it better to ride with a friend?
Let's go!



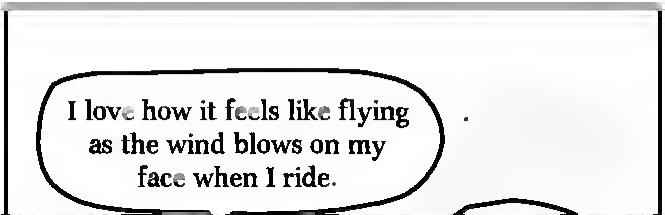


The view is really nice.
Told you so.



Do you enjoy cycling alone?
Uh-huh.
Why? Isn't it more fun to ride with friends?

Of course it's fun to ride with friends.
But cycling alone, you can set your own pace and fully immerse in the environment.
You can be yourself comfortably .



I love how it feels like flying as the wind blows on my face when I ride.

Free!

Free...

I was thinking.
I can support myself financially, I never wanted kids, so I don't need a partner for a family or anything...
...Does this mean I'm free?
Why ask suddenly?

It's ok that you don't feel anything now because you have never been in love.

You'll understand when you fall in love with someone special!

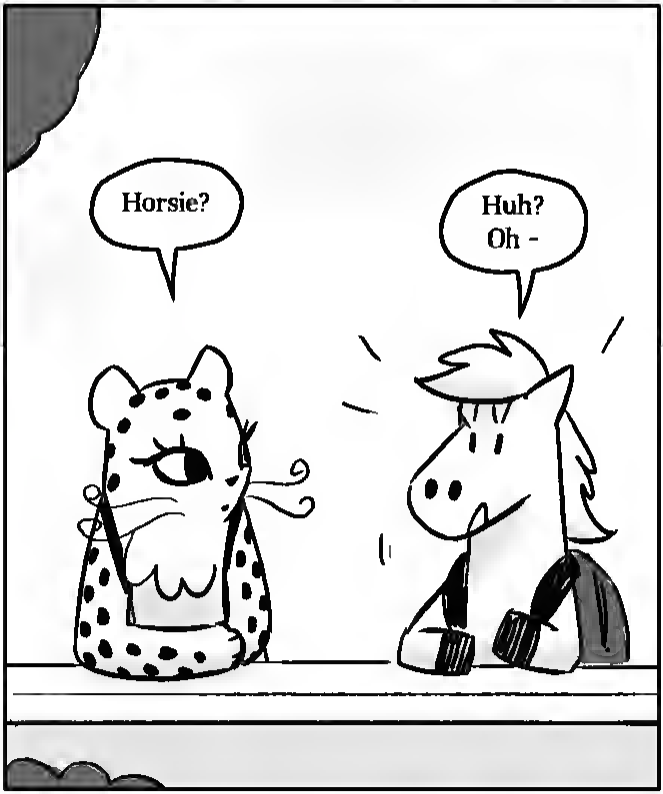
I think Tiffany's got her point.
Maybe you just haven't met that guy who makes you want a relationship.

How do you know?
You had that feeling before?

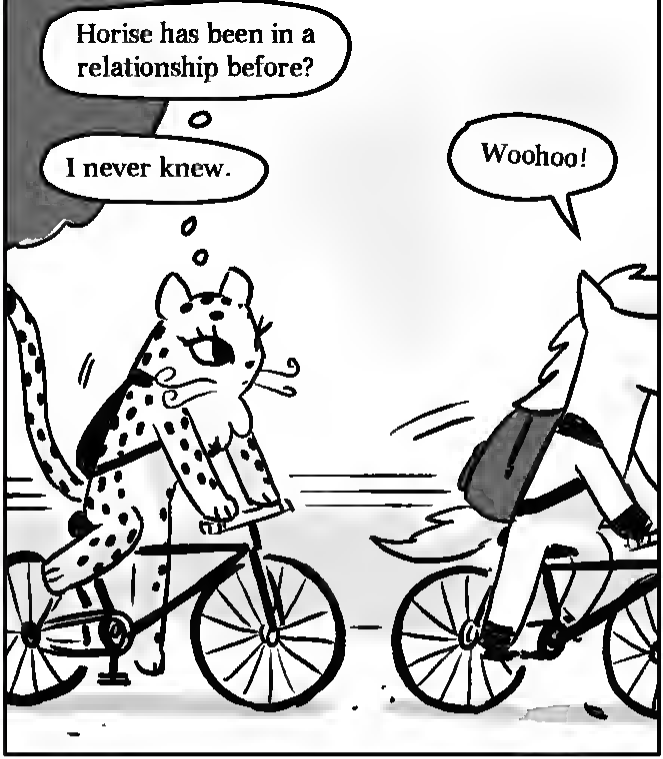
.....



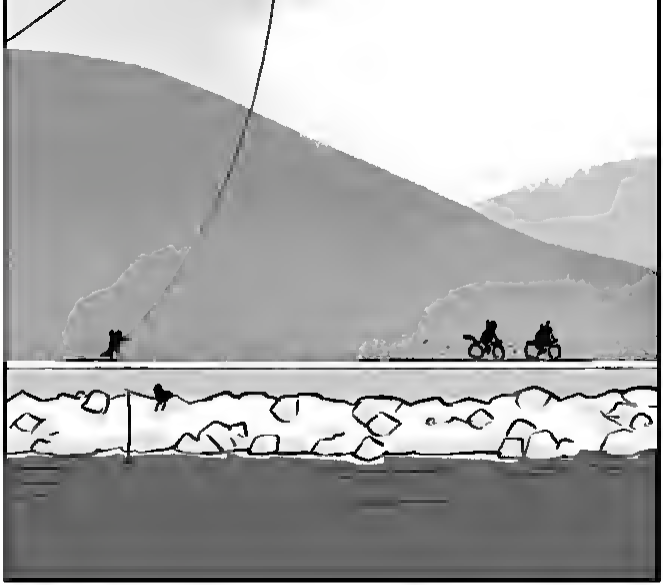
Horsie?
Huh?
Oh -

Um- well, yes and no.
What do you mean?

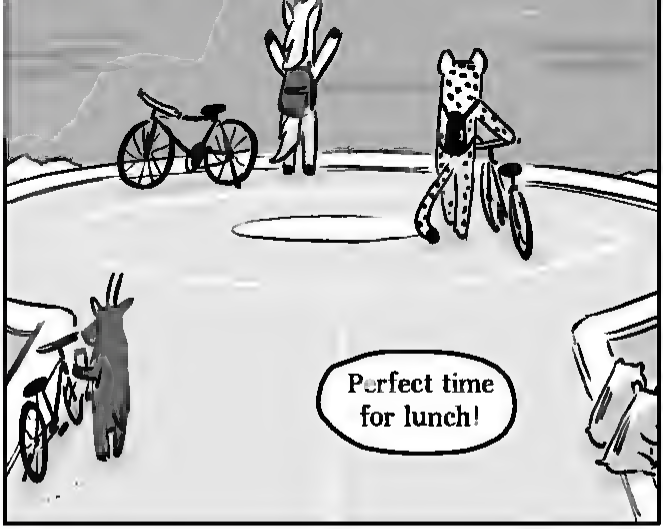
I thought I had that feeling, but I was wrong.
It's all in the past anyway.
Let's keep going!



Horise has been in a relationship before?
I never knew.
Woohoo!



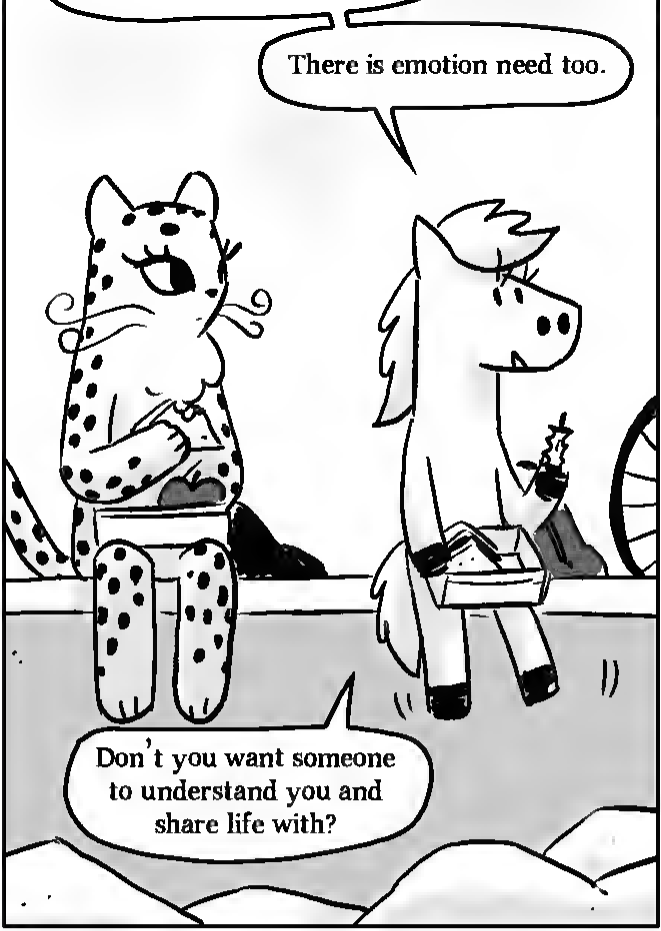
We're here!



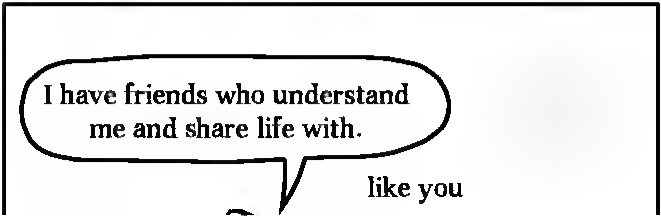
Perfect time for lunch!

There you go.
Thanks.

I think love is more than finding someone to start a family or pay bills together.



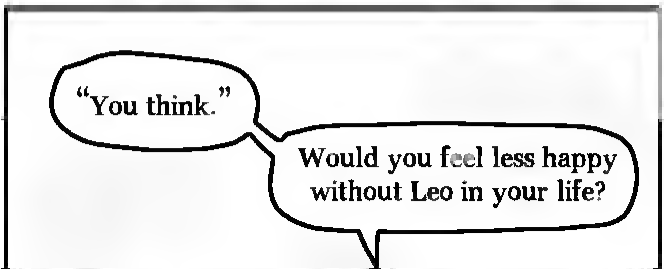
There is emotion need too.
Don't you want someone to understand you and share life with?



I have friends who understand me and share life with.
like you

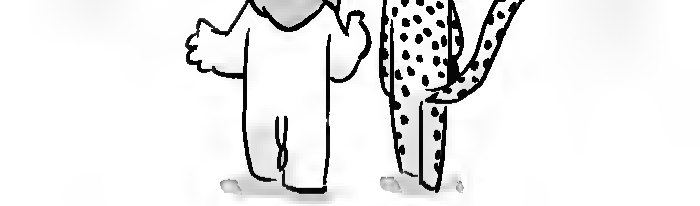
By the way, girl friends are better in understanding girl issues.
I think friendship bond is different from love.
But if you feel satisfied with your life right now, then that's totally fine.

I'm happy with my life right now.
I think.



"You think."
Would you feel less happy without Leo in your life?

ha
ha
ha



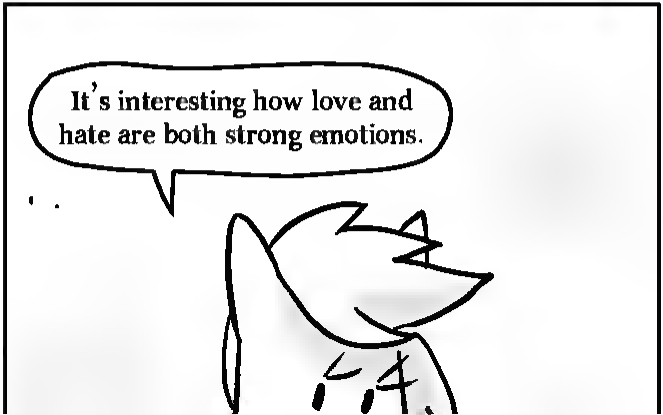
...I guess I would.

But there are also times

I absolutely hate him.

I don't even know what to make of these mixed feelings.

It's interesting how love and hate are both strong emotions.



Sometimes, I think the opposite of love is indifference instead of hate.
Love is such a mystery.
You have some interesting thoughts about it though.
Honestly, I never thought you have much opinion about love.

Yeah, how come I talked so much today!
The focus should be you!
What are you talking about,

it's just girl's talk.

Don't you want someone to understand you and share life with?

You had that feeling before?

Memories...I didn't ask you to come back.

It's all in the past anyway.
